SUMMER 2017

Season of HOPE

PREPARING FOR A RECORD-BREAKING SUMMER OF SERVICE

Being homeless in the summer is no vacation. For people living on the streets, life is a constant threat of dehydration, heat stroke, hunger, sickness and violence. There's no rest, only survival. There's little dignity, only despair.

Thanks to generous supporters like you, we have a chance to meet these urgent needs and give hope to people who are struggling. We've expanded our summer services over the years to include life-saving, life-restoring care like:

Extra shelter

60 extra floor mats provided all summer long!

Air-conditioned Guest Care Center to provide escape from the heat

Water and snacks available during extremely hot days

Daily activities and connection to area resources for health care, legal help and housing assistance

24/7 restrooms to help men and women maintain dignity

Daily showers and clean clothing to maintain hygiene

SEE WHAT WE'RE DOING TO GIVE RELIEF THIS SUMMER.

"I went a couple weeks without a shower and a few days without food," Gordon remembers. As an army veteran, he knew how to rough it. But being homeless for months on end took a brutal toll on his pride. Summertime heat left him dirty, smelly and ashamed. It was tough to ask for help.

Gordon is so grateful to have joined our year-long recovery program for men. "I was definitely grateful for a shower," he says. "I don't deserve it—having laundry, a bed and everything. It's a lot less stressful not having to worry about all of that while I'm here. I couldn't ask for more."

More than anything Gordon is glad to leave his old life behind. "Before I came here, I was a liar, a cheat and a thief. I didn't know God or care about anybody," he says. "Now I choose honesty over anything. Portland Rescue Mission gave me a chance to change."

NEW LIFE IS POSSIBLE - HERE'S HOW

Most people know that Portland Rescue Mission gives hope to thousands of people in crisis by providing free hot meals, safe shelter, showers, clothing, mail service, 24/7 restrooms and chapel services.

But that's just the beginning! Hundreds of lives are transformed in our free residential New Life Ministries at The Harbor for men and at Shepherd's Door for women and children. In a year-long recovery, hurting people journey from homelessness and addiction to a life of healing and freedom. Here are the phases of their path to restoration.

TRUTH

Restoration begins with seeing truth, sometimes for the first time ever.

- The truth about Jesus who loves me
- The truth about my addiction and how it is ruining my life
- The truth that change is possible - there is hope

Introduced to structure through life skills and vocational training

ACCEPTANCE

Restoration grows through accepting the truth

- Accept God's love and let Him work through my pain
- Accept my life and take ownership of my mistakes
- Accept feedback and training from people who love me

Able to do vocational work independently

FREEDOM

Restoration develops with the freedom to be someone new

- I'm free to love others because Jesus loves me
- I'm free from addiction and able to walk in a new life
- I'm free to build long-term relationships that are healthy

Prepared for outside employment and living

PURPOSE

Restoration is strengthened when purpose is found

- Find God's purpose for my new life
- Find a purposeful life full of goals and plans
- Find the purpose for the practical skills I've developed

Graduated into an independent life and desire to serve others

DRIVE AWAY HUNGER

OREGON'S MISS AMERICA, KATIE HARMAN, THE FACE OF DRIVE AWAY HUNGER

Singer-performer, and Oregon's beloved Miss America, Katie Harman, recently filmed two new commercials for Portland Rescue Mission (Watch them online: www.DriveAwayHunger.org, "Donate a Car").

"Some cars can go from zero to sixty in just three seconds," Katie says. "But there are also cars that can provide shelter, meals and life restoring care to people in need. And that just might be the car in your driveway."

A CHANCE TO CHANGE

From Heartache To Hardship... To Healing

All Gordon really wanted was a way out. "Portland Rescue Mission gives you a chance. That's all anybody every wants, is just the chance to change. The Mission definitely gave me that out of nowhere."

Gordon was all too familiar with his failures. Blame wouldn't help him. Judgment wouldn't change him. Telling him to get his act together wouldn't produce results.

Like the hundreds of people we serve each day, Gordon bore an overwhelming weight of deep-seated issues he couldn't begin to overcome on his own. He was willing to take the first step. He just needed someone to show him the way.

Gordon's journey had been from heartache to hardship. So often, it starts with a painful life experience, usually as a child. Then come unhealthy ways of dealing with the heartache. Then life disintegrates into incredible hardship. Fear takes over. Survival instinct kicks in. Despair slowly overshadows hope of a happy life.

Without help, Gordon might have stayed in his devastating cycle of heartache and hardship for the rest of his life. But because you care, Gordon—and hundreds of people like him—can finally break free!

Your support eases their hardship with nutritious meals, hot showers, safe beds and so many services provided with a friendly smile. Then, as their burden begins to ease, you speak to their heartache. Your generosity provides life-restoring programs to address the root causes of addiction. You help them find forgiveness as they draw closer to God. You rebuild their hearts and minds, supported by friends they can lean on, to move forward in life. That's healing!

Thank you for giving people a chance to change!
