Hope is Still Found Here!

Our Spring Newsletter allows us the opportunity to celebrate with our partners the ministry outcomes of the previous year. But it is not just about the meals, the shelter, or the short and long-term programs that we provided in 2021. It is the compassionate and highly-relational delivery of these crucial services that cultivated the most gracious outcomes – hurting, despairing neighbors feeling valued, gaining hope, learning to trust, and beginning to walk away from a life plagued by hunger, homelessness, and/or addiction. I rejoice that lives are truly transformed and families reunited through the love and grace of Christ expressed through our community of staff, volunteers, and donors.

All the compassionate care provided by Portland Rescue Mission is given with a view towards walking with people on a path towards a more purposeful and self-sufficient life. Trusting relationships are formed so hope can be instilled and barriers to success removed. Support in overcoming the identified barriers is offered through a variety of services including referrals, relational development, life skills training, workplace readiness, health and wellness activities, addictions recovery, parenting and family reunification assistance, cultivation of spiritual growth, and more.

And looking forward, I am excited for the opportunities we have every day to express the love of God to our neighbors in great need. I am excited to know you will be partnering with us, every step of the way. The prayers, the ongoing support, and the service of our partners in ministry will fill another year with miracles of grace that will ignite hope and restore lives.

Celebrating with gratitude for you,

Eric Bauer, Executive Director

A Hopeless Condition

Terry now experiences new life in community at The Harbor

After 30 years of instability and addiction, Terry came to an uncomfortable conclusion. “I realized that I have no structure. I have nowhere to go, and no one wants to be around me. It’s misery... just a hopeless condition.” Thankfully there was one person in Terry’s life who could point him in the right direction, and that direction was to join Portland Rescue Mission’s recovery program at The Harbor.

“I knew they were friendly the first time somebody came up and offered me coffee. Something inside of me said, “Look, you came here for help so trust them.” That’s when everything changed for Terry. “It’s like freedom. I found out through coming to The Harbor that I thrive with support, which is something that I’ve never had. I enjoy being a part of a thriving community where we help each other. When one person’s down, we lift them up and pray for them.”

What happened when Terry had a chance to greet a new program participant? “I got in line, man. I got in line!”

After
30 YEARS
Terry has found hope!

Please donate today to provide others like Terry with meals, shelter, and life-restoring care.

CARE PARTNER PROFILE

Since 2018 The Kroger Co.'s Zero Hunger | Zero Waste Foundation has been committed to creating communities free of hunger and waste. Their commitment to provide nutritious meals while also serving men and women experiencing homelessness, who want to gain skills, stabilize their lives, and find permanent housing, very much aligns with the work of Portland Rescue Mission. For that reason, Portland Rescue Mission received a grant from the foundation that provided nutritious meals to people in need for the entire month of April! This has created thousands of opportunities for us to meet our guests and invite them into a caring community.

Kroger Co.'s Fred Meyer team also has a longstanding tradition of serving meals and encouraging guests at our Burnside Shelter. For years they hosted a monthly birthday party that was held the third Wednesday of every month. Thank you, Kroger Co., for improving food security and reducing waste in our community!
